AMERICANISM DAY IN BAY ST. LOUIS BY LEGION POST ATTRACTED MANY

Parade From Central School to Courthouse Colorful—Flag Raising at Courthouse Memorable Event—Several Speakers Address Audience of Probably 1000 People.

In accordance with a proclamation issued by our City Fathers, Americanism Day was officially observed with impressive services on last Thursday, July 25th, with an interesting program which began after the disbanding of a huge and colorful parade before a speakers stand erected before the Hancock county courthouse, and in which hundreds of citizens had participated.

The program was sponsored by the Clement R. Bontemps Post of the American Legion of Hancock County who were ably assisted by a number of prominent citizens and the American Legion posts of Gulfport and Biloxi, and the local chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliary, with the board of supervisors of Hancock county fully co-operating.

The parade began promptly at 3 o'clock from Second Street and Carroll avenue where the different civic organizations, groups and everyone participating had assembled on foot and in cars on the grounds of Central High School and consisted of motorized patrol of Hancock county, county and city officials, commanders and members of the Legion Posts of Biloxi, Gulfport and Bay St. Louis, several bands including Bay High School's Band under direction of Prof. W. C. Morgan, the Drum and Bugle Corps of Joe Graham Post of Gulfport and the American Legion Auxiliary Band of Biloxi.

Legionnaires mounted on horses and a handsome horse-drawn buggy owned by Emilio Cue headed the parade, with the Gulfport Legionnaires motorized box car with its familiar black letters "40 hommes et 8 chevaux" (40 men or 8 horses) and its "Americanism" banner. A picturesque sight heading the great number of pedestrians from the different girl and boy scout troops, Sea Scouts and Marines, Knights of Columbus, Legionnaires, members of the different auxiliaries, Catholic Youth Organization, and representatives in cars from the U. S. Army Recruiting Service, Forest Conservation Corps, W. P. A. Public Library, W. P. A. Recreation Project, and business houses.

Everywhere along the route of the parade, down Union avenue to N. Beach to Main Street, and up Main to the courthouse, the sidewalks were lined with persons paying homage to the Flag of Our Country and witnessing this gigantic parade commemorating Americanism Day.

The program before the Hancock county courthouse was held on a specially constructed stand which was gay with American flags, and about which city and county officials and guests of honor were seated.

City Attorney Lucien M. Gex was an able master of ceremonies and after Wm. R. Garcia, Commander of Clement R. Bontemps Post, made a short address and requested everyone to join in the singing of "God Bless America," the invocation was given by the Rev. A. J. Boyles, Chaplain of the Post.

Mr. Gex explained the idea of Americanism Day and stated that at a time like this, it was fitting that we of Hancock county should gather and publicly manifest our patriotism.

Palmer A. Lott, post-commander of the local Legion Post, was the next speaker, and Commissioner H. Grady Perkins made an impressive talk, explaining the purpose of Boys State, and stating that one of our home boys had recently returned from New York where he had received signal honors.

Professor S. J. Ingram presented Mark Solomon, graduate of Central High School, with a diploma from Boys' State.

Mark Solomon thanked everyone for what he stated was one of the most wonderful experiences of his life, the trip and receiving of a diploma from Boys State, and gave an excellent address on "Americanism."

In the absence of Senator Bibbo and Congressman Colmer, Attorney Dan M. Russell addressed the crowd on Preparedness.

The flag raising was in charge of the local Sea Scouts, under direction of skipper Robert L. Camors, and after the pledge of allegiance to the flag, and a loving of same, benediction was said by the Rev. Father Leo F. Fahey and the program was concluded.

It is estimated that a crowd of more than a thousand persons gathered in Bay St. Louis on last Thursday for the ceremonies and many persons travelled many miles from the interior of the county, with also visitors from other Coast cities for this great day.

One-Horse Buggy In Parade Thursday Attracted Attention.

Thursday's parade, on the occasion of Americanism Day, was the one-horse buggy owned and driven by our townsman, Emilio Cue, who owned the outfit, and with him seated was A. G. Favre, clerk of the courts.

The horse, handsome black pacer, is a grandson of the famous Dan Patch of other days, and is a "beauty" in the fullest sense of the word. Mr. Cue had the buggy practically reconstructed. Getting the rubber tires was quite a task but he was successful in getting a hundred feet from one of the major rubber companies of the country. The dash board was specially reconstructed and in fact out of an old high set stylish buggy and new one was evolved.

It was both a curiosity to the younger generation and educational as well and Mr. Cue was complimented for his enterprise and get-up to serve as a feature in the parade. He and Mr. Chas. A. Breath, Sr., had tried the outfit on the road a few days previously and pulled reins in front of the Echo Bldg., where passersby stopped and viewed the turnout in admiration.

CANDIDATE FOR SUPREME COURT BENCH.

JUDGE R. W. CUTRER

JUDGE R. W. CUTRER, MAGNOLIA, CANDIDATE FOR SUPREME BENCH

Distinguished Jurist From Pike County Visits Bay St. Louis in Interest Of Candidacy.

Elsewhere in this issue of The Sea Coast Echo will be found the formal announcement of Judge R. W. Cutrer, of Pike county, who is candidate for the Supreme Court, South Mississippi.

Judge Cutrer is not only well known but highly qualified for the post and he is making an earnest campaign.

It might be of interest to learn of something more of Judge Cutrer. His home paper, the Magnolia Gazette carries the following story on the occasion of his announcement for the office:

The Gazette takes pleasure this week in carrying the announcement of Chancellor R. W. Cutrer of Magnolia for Supreme Court Judge of the Southern District of Mississippi. Judge Cutrer was born in Pike county, Mississippi on May 8, 1878, and his ancestors were pioneer settlers of this section. He received his early education in the public schools of this county, and is truly a self-made man. After working as a clerk in a store in this county for several years he saved enough money to enter the University of Kentucky, and graduated from the commercial department there. Still trying to climb, he worked for several years as bookkeeper in his county until he had accumulated funds to pursue his college education. Going first to Mississippi College and then to the law school of the University of Mississippi he completed his legal education in 1901 during which year he had his first taste of politics as president of his class. He was admitted to the bar in Magnolia in 1901, and has resided in this city ever since.

He was soon successful in building up a very lucrative law practice in all its branches common to this territory. After several years of private practice, he became the prosecuting attorney of this county, and discharged the duties of that office without fear or favor. In 1913 he was appointed chancellor of this district, the Fourth Chancery District and has, since that time, served in this capacity with distinction. When Judge Cutrer went on the bench as chancellor in this district he was quick to see that he had outgrown our antiquated chancery procedure in many ways, and immediately began urging the passage of laws and court rules that would expedite chancery matters. It was through his efforts that a movement was begun which brought about our modern chancery procedure in this state which materially decreased the expense of chancery courts both to the taxpaying public and to litigants. Although he was one of the youngest men in Mississippi ever to fill the office of chancellor at the time he was elected, his keen intellectual foresight, and ability as a lawyer soon attracted the attention of all who came into his court. He came to be admired by the lawyers of his district for his legal ability, and his fairness and justice to every suitor in his court regardless of his or her social or financial standing. The complimentary expressions that he is now receiving from the lawyers of this chancery district and many others in the Southern Supreme Court District who have had occasion to practice in his court amply attest his ability as a judge who has a judicial mind and temperament, and who is fair, just and impartial. It is these qualities as a judge that has won the confidence, esteem, and respect of those who have been in his court over these twenty-seven years he has been acting as chancellor, and has made the chancery forum for lawyers and litigants alike.

When Judge Cutrer gave up his lucrative law practice to become chancellor his experience had carried him into all the branches of the law. Through his long years of experience and preparation he has added much to his store of knowledge of the law in all its branches which peculiarly fits him for the promotion he now seeks.

These facts explain fully why he was so urgently solicited to make this race and why he is now receiving hundreds of endorsements who will be active for him. The people of this city and section recommend him to the voters of the Southern District as a man who will make a very capable Supreme Court Judge with a high sense of honor and responsibility. He has often demonstrated his understanding and sympathy for all the people. It was he who on the grounds of public policy first sustained applications for injunctions to force a moratorium on the foreclosure of mortgages thus saving the homes of hundreds of homeowners, farm foreclosures during the depression before the Legislature passed the Mortgage Moratorium Act. Only a short time ago he rendered a decision holding that the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans could not reserve oil and mineral rights in its deeds to purchasers of land owned by it on the ground that such action of a Federal agency and against the public policy of this state.

Judge Cutrer is married and the father of four children. He is a mason and shiner, deacon in the Magnolia Presbyterian church where he is also superintendent of the Sunday school, and a member of the Magnolia Rotary Club. He has a fine personality, and is kind and courteous to all; his health is unusually good, and he expects to conduct a very active and vigorous campaign confident that the people of this district will reward his years of preparation, and his fine qualifications for this position with their votes and active support.

BENEFIT CAKE WALK FOR HOSPITAL ROOF REALIZES NICE SUM

Many Attend the Innovation And Contribute—President Thankful.

Saturday night's cakewalk, benefit roof fund King's Daughters' hospital, Bay St. Louis, proved a success in more ways than one. As a result of this benefit the sum of $77.95 was realized.

Mrs. A. F. Fournier, president hospital board wishes to express thanks to one and all who so generously contributed and willingly gave of their time and efforts. Particularly to Mayor Blaize who gave so much of his individual time and efforts, and the other city officials; the merchants, to those who contributed use of automobiles, and the committee in direct charge. And not forgetting the many who liberally donated the cakes. This was an unusual outpouring of generosity and manifestation to help the cause, and Mrs. Fournier, representing the King's Daughters and hospital board is deeply appreciative.

It is hoped to have the sum realized necessary for the roof before the end of the summer.

Here is a letter, which speaks for itself, and is another evidence of good will:

Liberty, Texas, July 14, 1940. Mrs. C. Craft, Supt., Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Public Asked To Aid Lions Club In Task Of Collecting Dolls.

Bay St. Louis Lions Club members are enthusiastic over their Christmas project, even though we are having weather far remote from that time of the holidays—that of collecting from the public cast-away dolls and other toys that will be rehabilitated and be given to children that have nothing from Santa.

Dolls and discarded toys may be left at the Garner pressing establishment or with Mrs. J. B. Goldman. A telephone call will bring a collector.

Gob—After all, fools are the people that really make life interesting. When all the fools are gone I wouldn't care to be here.

Marine—Don't worry; you won't.

At the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Hancock County Fish and Game Protective Association, held Wednesday night at the courthouse, permanent officers were elected for the year, as follows:

President, Harry L. Witter; vice president, Fontaine Martin; secretary-treasurer, George F. Stevenson. A federal representative present announced that since the county now had a fish and game protective organization authorities were ready to stock the fresh water streams of Hancock with 50,000 black bass. The young fish will be shipped here from the hatcheries at Lyman, Miss., and that would be within the next two or three weeks. In fact the fish were ready now for their new water streams.

W. H. Starr, State game commissioner for South Mississippi, was present and made a talk in the interest of stocking the county with game. His talk was along informative lines and indicated that much would be done for the wild life of the county. Under organization, he said it was possible to do much for the county. The authorities are willing to provide much for the counties, but had to be assured that due protection would be forthcoming.

President Witter reports the organization flourishing and that the proper spirit and willingness as manifested would prove a valuable contributing factor to acquire the aims of the association.

LOCAL WPA LIBRARY ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Only Book For Adults Herebefore—Division of Carnegie Library Announces Change.

The Division of Intercourse and Education of the Carnegie Library has recognized the Hancock county library as eligible to receive children's books. For the past two years the library has been receiving adult books but this is an added privilege.

We have just received five books which have to do with three of the continents of the world and will take you from Australia to Asia and then to Europe. "Blackfellow Bundi" by Lelia and Kilroy Harris is his adventures with two white boys on a large sheep station in Australia; "Chang Chet" by Lee and Ho is the story of a little Chinese boy; "It Happened in England" by Marian King is the experience of Anthony and Ann Edwards in the Cotswold Hills of England. They get a great thrill out of seeing the coronation procession of King George VI; "Anything Can Happen on the River" by Carol Ryie Brink (it is enough to say it was written by Brink) is the story of Jacques, a French boy, and his exciting trip down the Seine; "At Mid-Summer Time" by Emmal Brock gives a delightful picture of an annual festival in Sweden.

The adult books for this month are of the present and will be of interest to the thoughtful reader. Olson's "Scandinavia" contains suggestions for a reasonable adjustment in five countries of social conditions. Birkenland's "Birchland" though pertinent now has to do with the time before the collapse of Norway; Booker's "News is My Job" the book of an adventurous newspaper woman; Butler's "Why War?" a collection of essays written in 1938-40 by the president of the Carnegie Endowment.

A. J. Moran, our genial friend, has given us a new copy of Thunder Mountain. Mr. Moran is an ardent admirer of the late Zane Gray's writings and has to his certain knowledge written every book the author has written.

Members of United States Spanish-American war veterans and auxiliaries of Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama and Texas will give one grand picnic next Sunday, August 4, at the Naval Reserve Park, Biloxi on Back Bay. This promises to be one of the biggest of outdoor affairs yet given hereabouts and should attract many of the veterans and their family and friends. The Echo has been requested to make this announcement and to remind all who are eligible to attend this day's outing. An interesting and varied program has been arranged.

In the remaining seven offices only one incumbent suffered defeat, namely Alderman A. P. Saucier, who was defeated by three votes by Raymond Lizana.

Need Laxative? Take All-Vegetable One!

Don't let impatience with constipation lead you into harsh measures for relief. Gentle but thorough action usually follows a good night's rest when BLACK-DRAUGHT is taken at bedtime by simple directions. Its principal ingredient helps tone bowel muscles. One of the tenderest romances brought to the screen since "Seventh Heaven," the story is woven around the whirlwind courtship and love affair between a ballet dancer and a handsome young officer. They meet on Waterloo Bridge during an air raid, are engaged in twenty-four hours, and then are separated on their wedding day when he is suddenly called back to the front. She reads that he has been killed in action. But a year later, they are
